

Response to Covid-19 "after the transition to Category V Infectious Diseases"①

		Current situation (Until May 7)	Transition to Category V (From May 8)
Outpatients Response to fever patients, etc.	Treatment	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Mainly "medical treatment and examination medical institutions" (so-called fever outpatient services)</li> </ul>	■ Widely available at general medical institutions※ ※If it is difficult to receive medical treatment at your own hospital, said medical institution will guide you to visit a medical institution that is able to provide medical care. Please contact your medical institution before your consultation and wear a mask when you see a doctor.
	Cost	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• No copayment for expenses (tests, etc.) related to Covid-19.</li> <li>• Initial consultation fees are to be borne by the patient.</li> </ul>	□ Copayment for medical expenses, etc.※ ※Only the drug cost of new Covid-19 treatment drugs (Lagevrio, Zocova, etc.), no copayment
Hospitalization	Treatment	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Accepted by medical institutions accepting inpatients</li> </ul>	■ Patients with severe or moderate illness II (requiring oxygen administration) → Accepted by inpatient medical institutions ■ Patients with mild or moderate symptoms I requiring hospitalization → Acceptance not limited to inpatient medical institutions
	Cost	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• No copayment for medical expenses</li> <li>• Expenses other than related to Covid-19 and other various expenses at the time of</li> </ul>	□ Copayment for medical expenses, etc.※ ※In principle, the maximum copayment is the amount obtained by deducting 20,000

		hospitalization (fee for change of bed) are borne by the patient	yen from the copayment limit of the high-cost medical care insurance system.
--	--	--	--

Response to Covid-19 "after the transition to Category V Infectious Diseases"②

		Current situation (Until May 7)	Transition to Category V (From May 8)
Residential Medical Treatment	Treatment	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Patients who are deemed to not require hospitalization by a doctor are admitted to an accommodation facility.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>■ Admission of the elderly and pregnant women will continue</li> </ul> Please apply via the prefectural website.
	Cost	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• No copayment during residential medical treatment</li> </ul>	<input type="checkbox"/> You have to pay the amount equivalent to the actual cost of food
Recovering at Home	Treatment	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 24-hour consultation service for those in poor physical condition</li> <li>• Pulse oximeters will be lent to people over 75 years old</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>■ If you are not sure which medical institution to visit, call the number below: Telephone Consultation Center (029-301-3200)</li> <li>■ If you are not sure whether to call an ambulance, call the number below: #7119 (Adults), #8000 (Children)</li> </ul>

	Cost	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Medical expenses related to Covid-19 received during at home recovery are not borne to the patient.</li> </ul>	<input type="checkbox"/> Copayment for medical expenses, etc.
Vaccination	Treatment	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Those who are eligible will be vaccinated at medical institutions. (Special Temporary Vaccination under the Immunization Act)</li> <li>Spring vaccination: From May 8</li> <li>Autumn vaccination: From September (planned)</li> </ul>
	Cost	<input type="checkbox"/> No copayment (until March 31, 2024)

Response to Covid-19 "after the transition to Category V Infectious Diseases" ③

	Current situation (Until May 7)	Transition to Category V (From May 8)
Free testing at pharmacies, etc.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>If you feel worried about infection※</li> <li>※Excluding those who have symptoms such as fever</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Free testing is no longer available</li> <li>※Medical test kits continue to be sold in pharmacies</li> </ul>
Restrictions on the behavior of positive persons	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Refrain from going out for 7 days from the onset of the disease and until 24 hours have passed since the symptoms have subsided.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>It is recommended to refrain from going out until 5 days have passed since the onset of the disease and 24 hours have passed since the symptoms have subsided.</li> </ul>
Restrictions on the movement of close contacts	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>As a general rule, refrain from going outside for 5 days from the day after contact with the patient.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Movement restrictions are not necessary.</li> </ul>
Restrictions on holding events, etc.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>In order to hold the event at 100% occupancy, it is necessary to formulate an infection prevention safety plan.</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Restrictions are abolished.</li> </ul>
Identifying and publicizing the infection	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Identification of the total number through</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>At about 120 locations in the prefecture, we identify fixed</li> </ul>

status	notifications from medical institutions, etc. • Daily announcement of the number of positive cases by age group	points once a week. ■ Publication of the number of patients per fixed point once a week
--------	--	--